

Lynndale Park

Fieldwork:
MikeSchuh 1995
Cartography:
Debbie Newell

Updates:
Eileen Breseman (LIDAR) 2009
Jim Siscoel 2015

Version: Oct115

Legend

- |  |                                 |  |  |
|--|---------------------------------|--|--|
|  | contour, form line              |  | pavement, settlement (out of bounds)         |
|  | earth bank, slope line          |  | scattered trees                              |
|  | small knoll, small depression   |  | paved path                                   |
|  | pit, boulder, boulder field     |  | vehicle track                                |
|  | intermittent stream             |  | footpath, small path                         |
|  | small erosion gully             |  | indistinct path, steps                       |
|  | pond, indistinct marsh          |  | out of bounds                                |
|  | fire hydrant, drinking fountain |  | power line                                   |
|  | open land, wood chip covering   |  | high fence                                   |
|  | vegetation: slow run, fight     |  | fence  |
|  | rough open, slow run underbrush |  | building, overhang                           |
|  | rootstock, single tree          |  | pole or manmade object, playground equipment |

Cascade
Orienteering Club
PO Box 31375
Seattle WA 98103
www.CascadeOC.org

©Cascade Orienteering Club

ORIENTEERING is a sport that involves navigating a preset course through the woods using a map and a compass. For more information about orienteering, please contact the Cascade Orienteering Club.

scale in meters
0 50 100
Contour Interval 1.5 meters
Scale 1:4,000